RE: ORAL M GREEN (DEBTOR)
CASE #: 120-40029-ESS

August 10th, 2020

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please take notice that I Oral M Green paid Petroff Amshem(Attorneys at Law) $10,000 retainer for a Bankruptcy case. However according to our discussion, the Attorneys at Petroff Amshem tried to repeat the same similar filing as the previous Attorney Julio Portillo, which is and was not conducive to my case. So far my requests to the Attorneys Petroff Amshem has yielded NO response that was benefiting to my situation.

I Oral Green am requesting more time to find more time to find new & replacement Counsel that will better support my needs, and situations in my case, as per the motion filed by Petro Amshem to be withdrawn from my case and released of their duties as my Attorneys. I am requesting an opportunity to find and secure a suitable replacement.

Enclosed is a copy of my last correspondence to Petoff Amshem, which also represents my reply and defense to my Lawyers claims for withdraw.

Yours sincerely

Oral Green

I Oral Green am requesting more time to gather my growing list of liabilities and also to find replacement legal counsel. As per the motion filed by Petto Ashem to be withdrawn from my case and released of their duties as my attorney; I am requesting an opportunity to find and secure a suitable replacement.

Below is a copy of my last correspondence to the lawyers which also represents my reply and defense to my lawyers' claims for withdraw.

Letter to Attorneys:

As we have established, on our last phone call on January 24, 2020, I do have some reservations as it relates to the legal strategy being taken.

Specifically, the usage of a Chapter 13 re-organization bankruptcy verses a chapter 7 liquidation bankruptcy. As I understand it, either option would allow for a stay on the foreclosure of the property or would give us an opportunity to present the unusual and extenuating circumstances of my case.

In addition, as mentioned in our previous call, a Chapter 7 bankruptcy would have a powerful added benefit by allowing for the full reset or liquidation of my debts and liabilities.(Thus keeping in line with my strategy of the Restorative Re-Building of my life). Furthermore, as you have advised, I have taken a deeper look through my paperwork and have located additional debts and liabilities that need to be included within my Chapter 7 liquidation bankruptcy. To be clear, My intended purpose for retaining a lawyer was 3-fold; first, to provide immediate financial relief, second, to stay or stop any fraudulent efforts to remove me or take my home and finally to provide a means and platform to addressing my nearly 2 decades long yet still actively evolving Adverse Possession/Predatory Lending case.

After our last discussion I was a bit more hopeful and intrigued by the possibilities of getting my issues truly resolved unlike the reactive patch methods utilized by previous lawyers . In this case I was hoping that we would be utilizing the strategy of the chapter 7 method, because it would directly provide me with immediate financial relief, and it would even decrease the amount of time, litigation, and expenses on both our ends.

I thank you for your continued patience and understanding with my complex case. As we also discussed, There are actions being taken on the king's county supreme court front that achieves the same goals as filing for a bankruptcy. (To delay foreclosure and request that the judge reviews and considers the extenuating circumstances connected with this case and real property. (Ref. Index 3054 2015 and 16393 2003) Considering the fact that any official actions taken by the bank or courts would be weeks or months away...I have a question.... maybe I just don't know the legal process, but my question is what is the reason for the urgency or immediate rush, when we know there is already a stay on the property until approximately 19 th February 2020 and we agree that we want to take our time and file this bankruptcy smarter than the last failed bankruptcy?? Im Just curious.

Anyway, Thanks again for being one of the good ones, as we mentioned to you last time. I remain hopeful of the correspondents we are currently with OAG, Specifically, NY State Office of The Attorney General Mrs. Letitia James and we will be sure to mention to her, and her staff in Constituent Services, how patient knowledgeable and helpful you were in helping to responsibly resolve this entire predatory mortgage mess, and how you seem to be nothing like the other firms that we are currently discussing. Thanks again I look forward, and await to hear from you all as soon as needed be.

Sincerely yours,

Oral Green
